Dear Parent/Carer

Students in Years 7 and 8 will be having cookery lessons every week where they will be doing both practical and theory lessons. To ensure students get the maximum amount of time doing the practical element of cookery we are introducing a system where parents pay in advance for the ingredients.

Parents can pay in a range of ways, either through Parent Pay (see website for details), cheque payable to The De Montfort School or by cash (to be in an envelope with your son/daughter's name on the front.)

The cost is £15.00 for the academic year, payable asap in the first term please.

The money you pay will cover the cost of all the ingredients and by buying in bulk we are able to purchase at more competitive prices. This system also helps parents as it means parents won't have to shop every week for the correct ingredients.

For students who don't pay, they will only be able to do the theory element of the cookery lessons.

If you have any queries about this, please do not hesitate to contact me at cthomas@tdms.worcs.sch.uk .

Yours sincerely

Ms Cindy Thomas
