CIDA results are grades A-C or U

The results for the English Language speaking endorsement are Pass (P), Merit (M), Distinction (D) or Not Classified (NC).

Your official exam certificates will be available to collect from the school reception from 3rd December 2018.

You will need these certificates in the future for further education and/ or employers so please ensure that they are collected and kept somewhere safe. Copies are only available from the Exam Boards and they charge approximately £40 per copy.

Your statement of results is not an official document and you must collect your certificates.

History units are displayed with an estimated unit result grade and a mark of 0. (The Exam Boards were unable to remove the marks, so please ignore them).

Most qualifications are now awarded 9-1 grades but some subjects, including Psychology, Economics, Business Studies, Graphics and Resistant Materials are still awarded as A-G grades.
