Non-examination assessment is a form of internal assessment for reformed GCSE qualifications where it is the only valid means of assessing essential knowledge and skills that cannot be tested by timed written papers. Non-examination assessment applies control over internal assessment at three points: Task setting, task taking and task marking.

Roles and responsibilities Head of Centre:

- To be familiar with Joint Council for Qualifications (JCQ) instructions for conducting non-examination assessment.
- Responsible to relevant GCSE/GCE awarding bodies to ensure that all non-examination assessments are conducted according to qualification specifications.
- Ensures that the centre's non-examination assessment policy is fit for purpose
- Ensures the centre's internal appeals procedures clearly details the procedure to be followed by candidates (or their parents/carers) appealing against internal assessment decisions (centre assessed marks) and requesting a review of the centre's marking

Senior leaders

- Ensure the correct conduct of non-examination assessments which comply with NEA and awarding body subject-specific instructions
- Ensure the centre-wide calendar records assessment schedules by the start of the academic year
- Liaise with all relevant parties in relation to arrangements for and conduct of any monitoring visits for specific subjects

Quality assurance (QA) lead/Lead internal verifier

- Confirms with subject heads that appropriate awarding body forms and templates for non-examination assessments (including endorsements) are used by teachers and candidates
- Ensures appropriate procedures are in place to internally standardise/verify the marks awarded by subject teachers in line with awarding body criteria
- Ensures appropriate centre-devised templates are provided to capture/record relevant information given to candidates by subject teachers
- Ensures appropriate centre-devised templates are provided to capture/record relevant information is received and understood by candidates
- Where not provided by the awarding body, ensures a centre-devised template is provided for candidates to keep a detailed record of their own research, planning, resources etc.

Examinations officer:

- To be familiar with, and signpost, JCQ instructions for conducting non-examination assessment and other related JCQ documents.
- To be familiar with general instructions relating to non-examination assessment from each relevant GCSE awarding body.
- In collaboration with HOFs, to submit non-examination assessment marks to the relevant awarding body.
- In collaboration with HOFs, dispatch students' assessments for moderation.
- In collaboration with HOFs, make appropriate arrangements for the security of non-examination assessment materials

HOFs:

- To be familiar with JCQ instructions for conducting non-examination assessment
- To understand and comply with specific instructions relating to non-examination assessment for the relevant GCSE awarding body.
- Ensure that individual teachers understand their responsibilities with regard to non-examination assessment.
- Ensure that they use the correct task for the year of submission and take care to distinguish between tasks and requirements for legacy and new specifications
- To obtain confidential materials/tasks set by awarding bodies in sufficient time to prepare for the assessment(s) and ensure that such materials are stored securely at all times.
- To undertake appropriate departmental standardisation of non-examination assessments
- In collaboration with the Examinations Officer, to submit non-examination assessment marks to the relevant awarding body.
- In collaboration with the Examinations Officer dispatch students' assessments for moderation.
- In collaboration with the Examinations Officer, make appropriate arrangements for the security of nonexamination assessment materials

Special Educational Needs Coordinator (SENCO)

- To be familiar with JCQ instructions for conducting non-examination assessment with reference to special access arrangements
- In collaboration with the Examinations Officer Co-ordinate requests for special access arrangements

Teaching Staff

- Supervise assessments (at the specified level of control). Undertake the tasks required under the regulations, only permitting assistance to students as the specifications allow.
- Ensure that students and supervising teacher(s) sign authentication forms on completion of an assessment.
- Mark internally assessed components using the mark schemes provided by the awarding body. Via the HOF, submit marks through the exams office to the awarding body when required, keeping a record of the marks awarded (Where assessments are marked internally teachers may disclose marks to candidates provided that it is made clear that the moderation process may result in changes to marks. They should NOT attempt to convert marks to grades in advance of the publication of results.
- Take part in appropriate departmental standardisation of Controlled Assessments
- Retain candidates' work securely between assessment sessions (if more than one).
- Post-completion, retain candidates' work securely until the closing date for enquiries about results. In the event that an enquiry is submitted, retain candidates' work securely until the outcome of the enquiry and any subsequent appeal has been conveyed to the centre.
- Ask the special educational needs coordinator (SENCO) and the Examinations Officer for any assistance required for the administration and management of access arrangements.

Task Setting

In accordance with specific GCSE awarding body guidelines, Subject Learning Leaders will be responsible for the selection of Non-examination assessment tasks from an approved list or for setting appropriate centre specific tasks.

Subject teachers will ensure that students understand the assessment criteria for any given assessment task.

Issuing of tasks

The subject teacher will:

- Determine when set tasks are issued by the awarding body
- Identify date(s) when tasks should be taken by candidates
- Access set tasks in sufficient time to allow planning, resourcing and teaching and ensures that materials are stored securely at all times
- Ensure requirements for legacy specification tasks and new specification tasks are distinguished between

Task Taking

Unless the awarding body's specification says otherwise, the following arrangements will apply, in accordance with JCQ regulations:

- Invigilators and JCQ No Mobile Phone & Warning to Candidates posters are not required.
- Teachers will ensure there is sufficient supervision (in accordance with awarding body requirements) to ensure that work can be authenticated as the candidate's own work.
- Teachers will ensure that they keep a record of each candidate's contribution in group work, where applicable.
- Teachers will ensure candidates understand the need to reference work, give guidance on how to do this and make sure they are aware that they must not plagiarise other material.
- Teachers can provide candidates with general feedback and allow candidates to revise and re-draft work but must not provide model answers or writing frames specific to the task nor assess the work and then allow the candidate to revise it. Any assistance given must be recorded and taken into account when marking the work. Explicitly prohibited assistance must not be given and no assistance should be given if there is no means to record it and take account of it in the marking. Failure to follow this procedure constitutes malpractice.
- Teachers must be aware of the awarding body's restrictions with regard to access to resources.
- In formally supervised sessions candidates can only usually take in preparatory notes, they must not access the internet nor bring in their own computers or electronic devices. They must not introduce new resources between formally supervised sessions. Materials must be collected and stored securely at the end of each session and not be accessible to candidates.

Advice and feedback

The subject teacher will:

- As relevant to the subject/component, advises candidates on relevant aspects before candidates begin working on a task
- When reviewing candidates' work, unless prohibited by the specification, provides oral and written advice at a general level to candidates
- Allow candidates to revise and re-draft work after advice has been given at a general level
- Records any assistance given beyond general advice and takes it into account in the marking or submits it to the external examiner
- Ensures when work has been assessed, candidates are not allowed to revise it

Resources

The subject teacher will:

- Refers to the awarding body's specification and/or associated documentation to determine if candidates have restricted/unrestricted access to resources when planning and researching their tasks
- Ensures conditions for any formally supervised sessions are known and put in place
- Ensures conditions for any formally supervised sessions are understood and followed by candidates
- Ensures candidates understand that they are not allowed to introduce improved notes or new resources between formally supervised sessions
- Ensures that where appropriate to include references, candidates keep a detailed record of their own research, planning, resources etc.

Word and time limits

The subject teacher will:

- Refer to the awarding body's specification to determine where word and time limits apply/are mandatory

Collaboration and group work

The subject teacher will:

- Unless stated otherwise in the awarding body's specification, and where appropriate, allow candidates to collaborate when carrying out research and preparatory work
- Ensure that it is possible to attribute assessable outcomes to individual candidates
- Ensure that where an assignment requires written work to be produced, each candidate writes up their own account of the assignment
- Assess the work of each candidate individually

Authentication

The subject teacher will:

- Where required by the awarding body's specification
 - ensure candidates sign a declaration confirming the work they submit for final assessment is their own unaided work

- sign the teacher declaration of authentication confirming the requirements have been met
- Keep signed candidate declarations on file until the deadline for enquiries about results has passed or until any appeal, malpractice or other results enquiry has been completed, whichever is later
- Provide signed candidate declarations where these may be requested by a JCQ Centre Inspector
- Where there may be doubt about the authenticity of the work of a candidate or if malpractice is suspected, follow the authentication procedures and malpractice information in the JCQ publication Instructions for conducting non-examination assessments and inform the appropriate Senior Leadership Team line manager.

Presentation of work

The subject teacher will:

- Obtain informed consent at the beginning of the course from parents/carers if videos or photographs/images of candidates will be included as evidence of participation or contribution
- Instruct candidates to present work as detailed in the JCQ publication Instructions for conducting non-examination assessments unless the awarding body's specification gives different subject-specific instructions
- Instruct candidates to add their candidate number, centre number and the component code of the assessment as a header/footer on each page of their work

Keeping materials secure

The subject teacher will:

- When work is being undertaken by candidates under formal supervision, ensure work is securely stored between sessions (if more than one session)
- Always keep live coursework secure and confidential whilst in their possession. The sharing of 'live' coursework with other candidates by teaching staff will constitute malpractice
- When work is submitted by candidates for final assessment, ensure work is securely stored
- Follow secure storage instructions as defined in the JCQ publication Instructions for conducting nonexamination assessments.
- Take sensible precautions when work is taken home for marking
- Store internally assessed work, including the sample returned after awarding body moderation, securely until the closing date for enquiries about results or until the outcome of an enquiry or any subsequent appeal has been conveyed to the centre
- Remind candidates of the need to keep their own work secure at all times and not share completed or partially completed work on-line, on social media or through any other means
- Liaise with the IT Manager to ensure that appropriate arrangements are in place to restrict access between sessions to candidates' work where work is stored electronically

The IT manager will:

- Ensure appropriate arrangements are in place to restrict access between sessions to candidates' work where work is stored electronically

Task marking – externally assessed components

Conduct of externally assessed work

The subject teacher will:

- Liaise with the exams officer regarding arrangements for the conduct of any externally assessed nonexamination component of a specification
- Liaise with the Visiting Examiner where this may be applicable to any externally assessed component

The exams officer will:

- Arrange timetabling, rooming and invigilation where this is applicable to any externally assessed nonexamination component of a specification
- Conduct the externally assessed component within the window specified by the awarding body
- Conduct the externally assessed component according to the JCQ publication Instructions for conducting examinations Submission of work

The subject teacher will:

- Provide the attendance register to a Visiting Examiner

The exams officer will:

- Provide the attendance register to the subject teacher where the component may be assessed by a Visiting Examiner
- Ensure the awarding body's attendance register for any externally assessed component is completed correctly to show candidates who are present and any who may be absent
- Where candidates' work must be despatched to an awarding body's examiner, ensure the completed attendance register accompanies the work
- Keep a copy of the attendance register until after the deadline for enquiries about results for the exam series
- Package the work as required by the awarding body and attach the examiner address label
- Despatch the work to the awarding body's instructions by the required deadline

Task marking – internally assessed components

Marking and annotation

The subject teacher will:

- Attend awarding body training as required to ensure familiarity with the mark scheme/marketing process
- Mark candidates' work in accordance with the marking criteria provided by the awarding body
- Candidates' work must be dated by teachers to reflect when it was marked
- Annotate candidates' work as required to facilitate internal standardisation of marking and enable external moderation to check that marking is in line with the assessment criteria
- Inform candidates of their marks which could be subject to change by the awarding body moderation process
- Ensure candidates are informed to the timescale indicated in the centre's internal appeals procedure to enable an internal appeal/request for a review of marking to be submitted by a candidate and the outcome known before final marks are submitted to the awarding body

Internal standardisation

The quality assurance (QA) lead/lead internal verifier will:

- Ensure that internal standardisation of marks across assessors and teaching groups takes place as required and to sequence
- Support staff who are not familiar with the mark scheme (e.g. NQTs, supply staff etc.)
- Ensure accurate internal standardisation - for example by
 - obtaining reference materials at an early stage in the course
 - hold a preliminary trial marking session prior to marking
 - carry out further trial marking at appropriate points during the marking period
 - after most marking has been completed, hold a further meeting to make final adjustments
 - make final adjustments to marks prior to submission
 - retain work and evidence of standardisation

The subject teacher will:

- Indicate on work (or cover sheet) the date of marking
- Mark to common standards

Submission of marks and work for moderation

The subject teacher will:

- Input and submit marks online via the awarding body secure extranet site, keeping a record of the marks awarded to the external deadline/Provides marks to the exams officer to the internal deadline
- Where responsible for marks input, ensure checks are made that marks for any additional candidates are submitted and ensure mark input is checked before submission to avoid transcription errors
- Submit the requested samples of candidates' work to the awarding body moderator by the external deadline, keeping a record of the work submitted/Provides the moderation sample to the exams officer to the internal deadline
- Ensure the moderator is provided with authentication of candidates' work, confirmation that internal standardisation has been undertaken and any other subject-specific information where this may be required

The exams officer will:

- Input and submit marks online via the awarding body secure extranet site, keeping a record of the marks submitted to the external deadline/confirms with subject teachers that marks have been submitted to the awarding body deadline
- Where responsible for marks input, ensure checks are made that marks for any additional candidates are submitted and ensure mark input is checked before submission to avoid transcription errors
- Submit the requested samples of candidates' work to the moderator by the awarding body deadline, keeping a record of the work submitted/confirms with subject teacher that the moderation sample has been submitted to the awarding body deadline
- Ensure that for postal moderation
 - work is dispatched in packaging provided by the awarding body. Precautions are made to ensure that the package in which the work is dispatched is robust and securely fastened.
 - Sensitive digital media is encrypted in line with the awarding body guidance.
 - moderator label(s) provided by the awarding body are affixed to the packaging
 - proof of dispatch is obtained and kept on file until the successful issue of final results
- Through the subject teacher, ensures the moderator is provided with authentication of candidates' work, confirmation that internal standardisation has been undertaken and any other subject-specific information where this may be required

Storage and retention of work after submission of marks

The subject teacher will:

- Keep a record of names and candidate numbers for candidates whose work was included in the moderation sample
- Retain all marked candidates' work (including any sample returned after moderation) under secure conditions until after the deadline for enquiries about results
- Take steps to protect any work stored electronically from corruption and has a back-up procedure in place
- Retain evidence of work where retention may be a problem (for example, photos of artefacts etc.) The exams officer will:
- Ensure any sample returned after moderation is logged and returned to the subject teacher for secure storage and required retention

External moderation - feedback

The HOFs will:

- Check moderator reports and ensure that any remedial action, if necessary, is undertaken before the next examination series

The exams officer will:

- Access or signposts moderator reports to relevant staff
- Take remedial action, if necessary, where feedback may relate to centre administration

Access arrangements

The subject teacher will:

- Work with the SENCo to ensure any access arrangements for eligible candidates are applied to assessments

The SENCo will:

- Follow the regulations and guidance in the JCQ publication Access Arrangements and Reasonable Adjustments
- Where arrangements do not undermine the integrity of the qualification and is the candidate's normal way of working, will ensure access arrangements are in place and awarding body approval, where required, has been obtained prior to assessments taking place
- Make subject teachers aware of any access arrangements for eligible candidates which need to be applied to assessments
- Works with subject teachers to ensure requirements for access arrangement candidates requiring the support of a facilitator in assessments are met
- Ensure that staff acting as an access arrangement facilitator are fully trained in their role

Special consideration

The subject teacher will:

- Understand that a candidate may be eligible for special consideration
 - in assessments in certain situations where a candidate is absent
 - produces a reduced quantity of work
 - work has been lost
- Liaise with the exams officer when special consideration may need to be applied for a candidate taking assessments

The exams officer will:

- Refer to/directs relevant staff to the JCQ publication A guide to the special consideration process
- Where a candidate is eligible, submit an application for special consideration via the awarding body's secure extranet site to the prescribed timescale
- Where application for special consideration via the awarding body's secure extranet site is not applicable, submit the required form to the awarding body to the prescribed timescale
- Keep required evidence on file to support the application

Malpractice

The head of centre will:

- Understand the responsibility to immediately report to the relevant awarding body any alleged, suspected or actual incidents of malpractice involving candidates, teachers, invigilators or other administrative staff
- Be familiar with the JCQ publication Suspected Malpractice in Examinations and Assessments: Policies and Procedures
- Ensure that those members of teaching staff involved in the direct supervision of candidates producing non-examination assessment are aware of the potential for malpractice and ensures that teaching staff are reminded that failure to report allegations of malpractice or suspected malpractice constitutes malpractice in itself

The subject teacher will:

- Be aware of the JCQ Notice to Centres - Teachers sharing assessment material and candidates' work
- Ensure candidates understand the JCQ document Information for candidates - non-examination assessments
- Ensure candidates understand the JCQ document Information for candidates - Social Media
- Escalate and report any alleged, suspected or actual incidents of malpractice involving candidates to the head of centre

The exams officer will:

- Signpost the JCQ publication Suspected Malpractice in Examinations and Assessments: Policies and Procedures to the head of centre
- Signpost the JCQ Notice to Centres - Teachers sharing assessment material and candidates' work to subject heads
- Signpost candidates to the relevant JCQ information for candidates documents
- Where required, support the head of centre in investigating and reporting incidents of alleged, suspected or actual malpractice

Enquiries about results

The head of centre will:

- Ensure the centre's internal appeals procedures clearly detail the procedure to be followed by candidates (or their parents/carers) appealing against a centre decision not to support a clerical check, a review of marking, a review of moderation or an appeal

The HOF will:

- Provide relevant support to subject teachers making decisions about enquiries about results

The subject teacher will:

- Provide advice and guidance to candidates on their results and the post-results services available

- Provide the exams officer with the original sample or relevant sample of candidates' work that may be required for an enquiry about results to the internal deadline
- Support the exams officer in collecting candidate consent where required

The exams officer will:

- Be aware of the individual post-results services available for externally assessed and internally assessed components of non-examination assessments as detailed in the JCQ publication Post Results Services (Information and guidance to centres)
- Provide/signpost relevant centre staff and candidates to post-results services information
- Ensure any requests for post-results services that are available to non-examination assessments are submitted online via the awarding body secure extranet site to deadline
- Collect candidate consent where required

Practical Skills Endorsement for the A Level Sciences designed for use in England

The head of centre will:

- Provide a signed declaration as part of the National Centre Number Register Annual Update, that all reasonable steps have been or will be taken to ensure that all candidates at the centre have had, or will have, the opportunity to undertake the prescribed practical activities
- Ensure new lead teachers undertake the required training provided by the awarding body on the implementation of the practical endorsement
- Ensure relevant centre staff liaise with all relevant parties in relation to arrangements for and conduct of the monitoring visit

The HOFs will:

- Confirm understanding of the Practical Skills Endorsement for the A Level Sciences designed for use in England
- Ensure where the centre intends to enter candidates for the first time for one or more of the A level subjects, the relevant awarding body will be contacted at the beginning of the course
- Undertake training provided by the awarding body on the implementation of the practical endorsement
- Disseminate information to subject teachers ensuring the standards can be applied appropriately
- Liaise with all relevant parties in relation to arrangements for and conduct of the monitoring visit

The subject teacher will:

- Ensure all the requirements in relation to the endorsement are known and understood
- Ensure the required arrangements for practical activities are in place
- Provide all the required centre records
- Ensure candidates provide the required records
- Provide any required information to the subject lead regarding the monitoring visit
- Assess candidates using Common Practical Assessment Criteria (CPAC)
- Apply for an exemption where a candidate cannot access the practical endorsement due to a substantial impairment
- Follow the awarding body's instructions for the submission of candidates Pass or Not Classified assessment outcome

The exams officer will:

- Follow the awarding body's instructions for the submission of candidates Pass or Not Classified assessment

Spoken Language Endorsement for GCSE English Language specifications designed for use in England

The head of centre will:

- Provide a signed declaration as part of the National Centre Number Register Annual Update, that all reasonable steps have been or will be taken to ensure that all candidates at the centre have had, or will have, the opportunity to undertake the Spoken Language endorsement
- The quality assurance (QA) lead/lead internal verifier will:
- Ensures the appropriate arrangements are in place for internal standardisation of assessments

The HOFs will:

- Confirm understanding of the Spoken Language Endorsement for GCSE English Language specifications designed for use in England
- Ensure the required task setting and task taking instructions are followed by subject teachers
- Ensure subject teachers assess candidates, either live or from recordings, using the common assessment criteria
- Ensure for monitoring purposes, audio-visual recordings of the presentations of a sample of candidates are provided

The subject teacher will:

- Ensure all the requirements in relation to the endorsement are known and understood
- Follow the required task setting and task taking instructions
- Assess candidates, either live or from recordings, using the common assessment criteria
- Provide audio-visual recordings of the presentations of a sample of candidates for monitoring purposes
- Follow the awarding body's instructions for the submission of grades (Pass, Merit, Distinction or Not Classified) and the storage and submission of recordings

The exams officer will:

- Follow the awarding body's instructions for the submission of grades and the storage and submission of recordings
